The Far Pavilions

An Epic on a Grand Scale

A thousand extras, five thousand costumes, three opulent palaces and scores of camels, horses and elephants help to recreate the splendor of India under the British Raj—the setting for HBO Premiere Films' The Far Pavilions. The $12 million mini-series was filmed in the ancient Indian city of Jaipur, giving an exotic flavor to the adventure and romance of the stirring love story. It should be one of the entertainment events of the year. See the first of three parts, starting April 22.

The HBO Guide is published monthly by Home Box Office, Inc., Time & Life Bldg., Rockefeller Center, New York, NY 10020. Frank J. Biondi, Jr., President; Jeffrey L. Bewkes, Treasurer; Carolyn K. McCandless, Secretary.

SUPERMAN III

Christopher Reeve
Richard Pryor

Look! On the TV! It's an adventure! It's a comedy! It's Supersequel! This time our hero battles nasty Robert Vaughn's world domination plot. Richard Pryor gets the laughs as a computer whiz who helps turn the Man of Steel into (gasp!) a bad guy! Annette O'Toole plays Superman's high school sweetie. High-tech dazzle and superfun. Adult situations and language, mild violence. (PG-2.05) Apr. 2, 8, 19, 21

A three-part mini-series from

HBO

Premiere Films

An exotic love story set against the epic sweep of battle and the splendor of 19th-century colonial India. In HBO Premiere Films' most lavish mini-series to date, Ben Cross (Chariots of Fire) stars as a British officer, born in India, who is torn between his military duties and his love for an Indian princess. Amy Irving (Yentl) plays the woman he loves in the forbidden affair. Based on M.M. Kaye's best-seller, the strikingly photographed blend of action, romance and history was filmed on location in India. The large all-star cast includes John Gielgud, Omar Sharif, Rossano Brazzi and Christopher Lee. The full drama will unfold on three successive evenings and will be repeated completely as noted below. Adult situations, mild violence. (1:50 each part)
